Criminal Offender Records Information (CORI) Policy

In order to promote security for Library patrons, especially children, the elderly and the disabled, all volunteers aged 18 and over will undergo a Criminal Offender Records Information (CORI) check. This is a final check in the volunteer screening process.

Volunteers must complete a CORI check through the Bureau of Criminal Identification, an agency of the State of Rhode Island. This may be done either in person at the Woonsocket Police Station, BCI desk at 4 Howard Drive in Cranston, or by mail at 150 South Main Street Providence, RI 02903. The cost for a background check is $5.00. You must supply the Woonsocket Harris Public Library with the original BCI paper.

A volunteer's CORI record will not be disseminated to any other person or agency. CORI records are not part of the public record, and will be kept in a secure location separate from other files, and may be retained for not more than three years. Only one copy of an individual's CORI will be kept in the file at any time. Superseded copies will be shredded.

Unless otherwise provided by law, a criminal record will not automatically disqualify an applicant. If a criminal record is received from DCJIS, the authorized individual will ensure that the record relates to the applicant. If the Woonsocket Harris Public Library is inclined to make an adverse decision based on the results of the CORI check, the applicant will be notified immediately. The applicant shall be provided with a copy of the criminal record and the Woonsocket Harris Public Library CORI policy, advised of the part(s) of the record that make the individual unsuitable for the position, and given an opportunity to dispute the accuracy and relevance of the CORI record.

If the Woonsocket Harris Public Library reasonably believes the record belongs to the applicant and is accurate, the determination of suitability for the position will be made. Unless otherwise provided by law, factors considered in determining suitability may include, but not be limited to the following:

- (a) Relevance of the crime to the position sought;
- (b) The nature of the work to be performed;
- (c) Time since the conviction;
- (d) Age of the candidate at the time of the offense;
- (e) Seriousness and specific circumstances of the offense;
- (f) The number of offenses;
- (g) Whether the applicant has pending charges;
- (h) Any relevant evidence of rehabilitation or lack thereof;
- (i) Any other relevant information, including information submitted by the candidate or requested by the hiring authority. The Woonsocket Harris Public Library will notify the applicant of the decision and the basis of the decision in a timely manner.
