Book Buddies:

Is a program where teen reading buddies ages 13-17 read with younger kids currently enrolled in 1st, 2nd or 3rd grade to build vocabulary and strengthen reading comprehension. This program does not teach reading skills. It does build upon already existing reading skills taught at home or in school.

January 24, 31 & February 7, 14, 28 4-4:45pm

No Book Buddies February 21st as that is school vacation week.

Join us for some fun!

Children will read with a teen buddy.

Reading, Coloring, Puzzles, Craft

Register at the Children's Desk Call 769-9044 Ext. 2

Please sign up prior to the start of the program so we can match younger children and teens for reading together. Teens can earn community service credit for school, sports or other organization.

Ask at the children's room desk.

Snow Policy: If the weather is bad we will see you next class.

If school is canceled on the day of Book Buddies, stay home there is no program that day.

Legos Anytime!

Do you want to build with Lego Blocks and add your creation to our display? You do not have to wait for a Lego Club to be scheduled. Ask at the desk for a bag of Legos.

We will add your creation to the display and take back the Lego bag for others to play with at the library.

Legos do not go home so that we can recycle them here for other friends to play with and add to our display area in the back of the children's room.

'Nancy Drew: The Girl Sleuth with a mysterious Past' Presented by Alicia Mello

Saturday February 24th 2-3pm

Did you know that Nancy Drew is one of the most famous fictional amateur detectives in the world? There have been more reprints, special editions, TV shows, scrapbooks, graphic novels, cookbooks, and even paper dolls than there are books from the original set of novels.

Local Nancy Drew enthusiast Alicia Mello will be at the Woonsocket Harris Public Library 303 Clinton Street Saturday February 24th 2-3pm, to share behind the scenes stories about the series.

Participants will learn facts that they may not know such as the true author, and why Nancy carried a gun early on in the books. Guests will be able to ask questions, reminisce about their childhoods, and discuss the impact the series has had on them into adulthood.

Guests may also bring Nancy Drew books from their collections to share with the group. Mello will assess book values and identify the true year of their publication, another mystery.

Participants may also bring any Nancy Drew related items they would like to show the group.

One lucky participant will leave with a recent reprint of the set of the first 5 books.

Registration is suggested. Call 401-769-9044 x2
